DAYTON, Ohio, February 10, 1971 --- The University of Dayton Players will present the Shakespearean comedy, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," February 12, 13 and 14 at 8:30 p.m. in the Boll Theater of the Kennedy Union.

The third presentation of the Players' '70-'71 season, "The Merry Wives of Windsor" is a sparkling farce-comedy which deals with contemporary life. The play takes you on a romp with Falstaff, that overgrown child who lives life for the fun of it.

The next UD Player production will be the recent Broadway hit "Celebration." This slightly different musical was written by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, the team that gave us the longest-running show in the professional American Theatre, "The Fantasticks." "Celebration" will be presented March 26, 27, 28, and April 2 and 3.

Tickets for all Player productions can be purchased by mail or at the Kennedy Union Ticket Office. Ticket prices are $2. To purchase by mail enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope and mail to The University of Dayton Players, 300 College Park Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45409.
